

Caption This!

Name _____

What do you think these polar bears are saying or thinking?

Related
article

Caption

---

---

---

---

Tips

- Look closely: Where are the characters? How are they posed? What are their facial expressions? What are they doing, thinking, and feeling?
- Writing tips: Keep it short. Aim for a 1–2 sentences. You can also use speech bubbles and thought bubbles.
- Make it funny! Use humor. Add a twist or something unexpected. Play with words.
- Try several ideas, then pick your favorite.
- Remember, there is no "right" answer!

Caption This!

Name _____

What do you think these polar bears are saying or thinking?

Related
article

Tips

- Look closely: Where are the characters? How are they posed? What are their facial expressions? What are they doing, thinking, and feeling?
- Writing tips: Keep it short. Aim for a 1-2 sentences. You can also use speech bubbles and thought bubbles.
- Make it funny! Use humor. Add a twist or something unexpected. Play with words.
- Try several ideas, then pick your favorite.
- Remember, there is no "right" answer!

Caption This!

Name _____

What do you think these polar bears are saying or thinking?

Related
article

Tips

- Look closely: Where are the characters? How are they posed? What are their facial expressions? What are they doing, thinking, and feeling?
- Writing tips: Keep it short. Aim for a 1–2 sentences. You can also use speech bubbles and thought bubbles.
- Make it funny! Use humor. Add a twist or something unexpected. Play with words.
- Try several ideas, then pick your favorite.
- Remember, there is no "right" answer!